

Long Island Pulse Magazine

"Sculpture Outdoors"

By Pat Rogers

August 31, 2010

Sculpture Outdoors

September also brings the last hurrah for curated outdoor sculpture exhibitions featuring Long Island artists.

Uncommon Ground is located at Bridge Gardens in Bridgehampton. The curated show is on view through September 13.

The show features 10 contemporary artists who exhibit internationally. They include John Van Alstine, Kevin Barrett, Jim Henderson, Joel Perlman and Win Knowlton.

The show explores man's relationship with the natural world, according to Cheryl Sokolow of C Fine Art. Ms. Sokolow curated the show.

Bridge Gardens is a stewardship project of Peconic Land Trust. Admission is $10 or $20 per family. Gardens are open weekends through October. It's located at 36 Mitchell Lane, Bridgehampton.

<http://www.lipulse.com/art-music/article/long-island-biennial-on-view>