

Hamptons Art Hub

Art Preview: Market Art + Design 2017

By Pat Rogers

July 5, 2017

Art Preview: Market Art + Design 2017

Market Art + Design is set to open with a VIP Preview on Thursday, July 6, 2017 to benefit Parrish Art Museum. The art fair continues on view from July 7 to 9, 2017. The art fair is the only one of the trio of long-standing art fairs to return to the Hamptons this year. Visitors to the fair can expanded the largest edition to date with nearly 65 exhibitors. The fair features contemporary and modern art along with jewelry from American and international designers and mid-century furniture.

"It's a big show," said Freeman. "It's the biggest show we've presented so far. It shows that there is still interest for active collectors in The Hamptons and the East End."

New exhibitors include 101/EXHIBIT (West Hollywood); Pontone Gallery (London); Aureus Contemporary (roving locations); David Benrimon Fine Art (New York); Damien Hirst's Other Criteria (London, Devon, New York); SPONDER GALLERY (Boca Raton); Rebecca Hossack Art Gallery (London, New York); TWYLA (Austin); Castor Gallery (New York) and others. Hamptons galleries exhibiting include RJD Gallery (Bridgehampton); Kathryn Markel Fine Arts (Bridgehampton, New York); Roman Fine Art (East Hampton); Ille Arts (Amagansett) and others.

In addition to exhibitors, there will be a number of sculpture installations outside and inside the art fair. Expect to see Cracking Art's Light Blue Snail, presented by Galleria Ca' d'Oro and sculpture by Harley Valentine, presented DURAN installed at various spots at the art fair.

For a full preview of select art to be exhibit, click here.

C Fine Art

New York, NY

"Whitewashed" by Joan Giordano. Mixed Media, 62 x 45 x 3 inches. Image courtesy of the artist and C Fine Art.